

Table of Contents

A. Introduction	1
1. Preliminary Remarks	1
2. In the Search of the Method of Study of Early Christianity	6
3. Quest for Patristic Christology	17
4. Church as School and the Role of the Christian Teacher	26
5. The Life of Clement and His Sources	32
6. Clement's Christological Outline	41
7. The Logos and Didaskalos in the Center	51
B. The Logos the Center of All	53
1. General Remarks	53
2. In How Many Logoi Did Clement of Alexandria Believe?	61
a) One Logos vs. Two Logoi	63
b) The Shift of Approach	103
3. Summary and Conclusions	149
C. The Logos the Teacher of All	156
1. Reassessment of Clement's Christology	156
2. Subject-Object-Process Model	161
3. The New Song	175
4. The Didaskalos	190
5. Clement's Didaskalos Christology	192
6. The High Priest	232
D. Conclusions	249
E. Appendix 1. Christian Education in Second Century Alexandria	252
F. Bibliography	267